Note

In 1895 Mr Thomas Denham, M A, Professor of History Maharaja's College, Mysore, undertook to edit a monthly journal called the "Educational Review" and he continued to be the editor thereof till May 1901, when he had to leave India on Furlough for 1 year Mr Mark Hunter M A, (Aus) Professor of English Literature, Presidency College, Madras, succeeded Mr T Denham as editor of the journal

Mr A J Grieve B.A, Professor of English, Central College, Bangalore now requests permission to undertake the ~~editorship~~ editorship of the journal In his application nothing is stated as to why a change of editorship is again necessary Perhaps

It may be due to the fact that Mr Denham will not ~~did~~ return from his furlough for 4 months more He applied for an extension of furlough which was sanctioned

In 1899, ~~Mr~~ Rajadharma
Pravina Mr. T R A Thumboo chettiar (then 1st councillor) raised a question whether a public servant may not be prohibited from having anything to do with journals or Newspapers and wanted to know whether Mr T Denham was permitted by Govt to edit the "Educational Review"

No references were forth coming on these two points and the matter was placed before the Dewan Mr Thumboo Chettiar as officiating Dewan ~~directed the matter~~ dropped the matter

It may be added that journals discussing questions of Educational interest are being ~~pubb~~ edited by ~~the~~ Hd masters or Principals or Professors of Colleges ~~Mr~~ Mark Hunter ~~though~~ though he was a Professor of English Presidency College, has been the editor of ~~or editing~~ the "Educational Review"
